

Email Marketing Template of Travel Agency Project

This project focuses on creating an email marketing template and landing page for a travel agency. The aim is to attract potential travelers, showcase travel packages and destinations, and encourage users to explore and book their next trip through engaging email and landing page content.

Email Campaign Design

This email campaign was designed to promote a Kashmir travel package. It uses attractive visuals, engaging content, clear benefits, and strong call-to-action buttons to encourage users to explore and plan their trip.

Landing Page

The landing page was created to support the Kashmir travel campaign and provide visitors with clear information about the trip. It uses attractive visuals, engaging content, key travel benefits, and strong call-to-action buttons to encourage visitors to explore and plan their Kashmir trip.
